Learning Objectives

- Students will be able to define what is computer professionals
- Students will be able to discuss the social and moral responsibilities of professional ethics
- Students will be able to address codes of ethics and codes conduct for professionals
- Students will be able to list the IEEE and ACM codes of ethics and professional conduct
- Students will be able to present the purpose of professional codes
- Students will be able to define the concept of whistle-Blowing
- Students will be able to differentiate between Responsibility, Liability and Accountability