Learning Objectives
Privacy in the Cyberspace

Students will be able to

- Define the context of personal privacy
- Identify computerized techniques that are used to collect private information
- Identify tools that are used to mine personal information
- Address some of the available privacy-enhancing tools
- Address some of the current privacy law and data protection tools